Duty on life saving drugs

2029. SHRI H.K. JAVARE GOWDA: Will the Minister of FINANCE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that levy of manufacturing duty on life saving Medical items such as Auto Analysers and Diagnostic Test Kits has been imposed in 2002-2003 budget only on indigenous manufacturers and not on multinationals;

(b) if so, the details of the reasons for adopting this discriminatory policy; and

(c) whether Government propose to withdraw these levies in order to correct the anomalies existing in the duty structure?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI GINGEE N. RAMACHANDRAN): (a) No, Sir. In this year's Budget, customs and excise duty exemptions on specified medical items such as Auto Analysers and Diagnostic Test Kits were withdrawn. These items have since become liable for a nominal excise duty of 4% ad valorem, if no Cenvat Credit facility is availed and are levied a nominal basic customs duty of 5% ad valorem, if imported.

(b) and (c) Does not arise in view of (a) above.
